Chapter 1 by Jacqueline

My fingers seemed frozen in the cold breeze that started carrying my soul out of me. I saw the life slip through my fingers. I was going to die and there was nothing I could do. Until I woke up on that uncomfortable hospital bed. When I realized something was wrong. My dogs were missing.

Aspen. Tundra. Dakota. Zeus. Athena. Tucker. Addison. I was out on a sled run when the ice broke underneath me. I crawled out, wet. I didn't see my dogs. No! They couldn't have died. I started panicking. Trying to get out of that uncomfortable hospital bed. No strength. Right. If my dogs were pulled in because they were connected... no. Tears came down threatening to make me cold again. Make the world seem dark.

"MOM! DAD!" Thats useless... their dead. "SOMEONE!" I screamed, I didn't hear a sound in return except for the nasty sound of something by my ear. A disgusting sound. Not even the most gross animal could make.
